PAPER FLOWER WORKSHOPS

PERFECT FOR CREATIVE HEN PARTIES

If you're looking for fun, relaxing and creative activity for your hen party, why not come and learn how to make some recycled paper flowers with the Page & Bloom team? It's suitable for a range of ages, and is a great way for people to catch up and chat while they craft.

OUR FLOWERS LOOK GOOD & DO GOOD

Page & Bloom is a social enterprise providing employment & training for women who have experienced domestic abuse. By choosing us for your hen party, you'll be helping other women bloom and build a brighter future.

FOR ALL SKILL LEVELS & EXPERIENCE

Our expert tutors will take you through the activity step by step. So whether your group includes seasoned crafters or total beginners, everyone can get involved. We make sure everyone goes home with a flower they love. Suitable for ages 14 and above.

VENUES

We'd be delighted to welcome you to Woolwich, SE London, where we host workshops in a beautiful yoga and events space overlooking the river. You can even combine your visit with a yoga or meditation class!

Or if you would prefer to arrange your own venue, our team can come to you (London only).

FLOWER OPTIONS

GIFTS TO TAKE AWAY

We can run a one or two hour workshop where each person ends up with either a single flower, or a small bouquet, to take away with them. Options include a paper rose, miniature tree or a succulent, and we can offer a range of colours.

FLOWERS TO WEAR

If you want to get your hen party involved in making some flowers for your wedding, the group can make paper flower hair combs, flower crowns or wrist corsages. We can even coordinate to your wedding colour scheme or flower style.

PRICES

Prices start from £35 per person for a one hour workshop. We can accommodate between 10 and 25 people.

With our friends at the yoga space, we can also arrange a combined flower making and yoga/ meditation afternoon, followed by sunset drinks overlooking the Thames. Contact us for more details!
