OUR FLOWERS LOOK GOOD & DO GOOD

BECAUSE WE'RE A SOCIAL ENTERPRISE - POWERED BY WOMEN

Page & Bloom is a social enterprise providing fair employment & opportunities for women who have experienced domestic abuse. We're a profit-making company with a social purpose, and the majority of our profits are reinvested back into our work supporting women.

We create jobs for women who are rebuilding their lives after domestic abuse. Jobs that are flexible, secure & decently paid.

Our free employability skills training programme helps women gain the skills & confidence to move into work. Paid work experience helps women gain the first stepping stone into, or back into employment. We also offer longer term roles making our beautiful flowers.

OUR DESIGNS

Our flowers don't need watering or tending to, or changing every week, making it an easier and cost effective way to have beautiful flowers in your office!

SEASONAL

Reflecting flowers most popular within each season. Perhaps cheery daffodils or bluebells in spring, or the burnt tones of dahlia & rudbeckia in autumn. The berries & foliage of our winter collections will be more natural & organic than our festive arrangements.

TROPICAL

Tropical flowers like curious protea & anthuriums are accompanied by tropical foliage such as palm & monstera in these arrangements. Making a bold, bright & interesting statement in your office area.

CONTEMPORARY

Sculptural, minimal & artistic designs based on our corporate flower arrangements using paper foliage & flowers, manipulated in a modern & artistic way.

Our office flowers start from just £100 per vase.

Our subscription service allows you to give your paper flowers a new life as the seasons change.

FLOWERS FOREVER!

When your new arrangement arrives, we can show you how to repackaging last season's display as a bouquet – perhaps to pass on as a 'well done' gift for a colleague, charity partner, or client?

Seasonal subscriptions start from just £100 per quarter. For more information, get in touch.

CORPORATE GIFTS THAT GIVE BACK

Show your clients and employees your appreciation with unique corporate thank you gifts. Choose one of our carefully curated designs, or create something completely bespoke. The only limit is your imagination!

As well as choosing the colours and flowers, you can also pick the paper the flowers are made from. We've used all kinds of paper from sheet music to old letterhead stationery to create stunning bouquets. Blooms that are both long lasting & low maintenance.

Social enterprises are the perfect partner for corporate gifting and they're easy to order!

Wrapped in sustainable packaging, each gift is carefully handcrafted in the UK by a woman building a brighter future. Available as one-off orders or ongoing subscriptions.

OUR CLIENTS

Since 2018, we've worked with some amazing companies from multinational banks and law firms to universities and start-ups, to create beautiful flowers.

THOMAS AND ADAMSON

Thomas and Adamson approached us to create some spectacular reception displays. We created these beautiful roses, cala lilies & thistles in muted tones using their own headed paper.

WORLD OF BOOKS GROUP

We created floral displays for World of Books Group to display in their offices. Every flower was made from books that World of Books Group couldn't sell.

PEAS PLEASE AWARDS

We were delighted to be asked to create the Peas Please Food Foundation Award winners bouquets & table decorations. Recycling their old reports, we created daisies, sweet peas and peonies.

"I really enjoyed working with you all and will be back in touch with another flower brief in future!"
